VISITING ROTARIANS:

None

NOTE: to encourage visiting Rotarians to attend our weekly meetings, the board has approved a “lunch special”. The lunch special is posted on the club’s Facebook page and is good until 12/31/17. The special is that any visiting Rotarian who says they saw the post on the Facebook page will receive a 20% discount on their lunch.

GUESTS:

Bryan Dziedziak was initially accompanied today by his better half, Dr. Caryl Dziedziak, Ph.D., Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of History at UNLV and also Assistant Director of the Women's Research Institute of Nevada, who apparently thought better about being seen in public with Bryan and promptly "skedaddled" before the introductions (actually I think she had an appointment to provide advice and counsel to the mayor or the governor or the UNLV president or someone equally important). However, Bryan did have two other guests who stayed for the entire meeting; Dr. Rebecca Gill, Ph.D., Director of the Women's Research Institute of Nevada at UNLV, and Dr. Jennifer Keene, Ph.D., Executive Associate Dean and Professor of Sociology in the College of Liberal Arts at UNLV. I guess we are going to have to start treating Bryan with much more deference considering the class of people he is running with these days.

ROTARY PINS

Ed Guthrie was wearing no Rotary regalia for which he donated $25 to the cause.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

President Ron reminded everyone that we were "dark" last week in recognition of Nevada Day. (An apparent reference to the sighting of at least two Rotarians driving into the parking lot and then hastily making U-turns and speeding away hoping nobody would see them. Oh, but Obadiah sees all and will never tell anyone that Eric Colvin was one of them.)

Tom Martin again announced that our next "Feed the Homeless" event at Christ Church Episcopal on Maryland Parkway will be on 11/29/17. Tom reminded everyone that we need donations of coats. Be there at 5:00 p.m.

Jordana Lane announced the upcoming "Santa Clothes" event on 12/7. We are partnering with the Las Vegas Club and will have 24 kids from Ruby Thomas Elementary School; 12 at the JC Penney store at the Galeria Mall and 12 at the JC Penney story at the Grand Canyon location. Please sign up in the "Blue" book.

Jordana Lane also announced that we need 4 volunteers on 11-08-17 for the Boy's Town of Nevada - Mrs. Claus's Kitchen. Adrienne has volunteered to dress as Mrs. Claus. Time is 4:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Please sign up in the "Blue" book.

Karl Maisner announced that the next satellite club meeting will be at 6:00 p.m., Thursday 11/9/17 at Sierra Gold at 215/Jones. We will be assembling hygiene kits for the feed the homeless event. Karl will send "evites" to everyone.

Keith Thomas advised the club members that the DACdb calendar on the District 5300 website is the official club calendar and should always have information about upcoming events, speakers, dark days, etc. He said he will also be sending an electronic copy of the calendar with the newsletter each week for those that may be technologically-challenged. The calendar is also on the club's website and a link will also appear on the club's Facebook page (you are electronically surrounded and no longer have any excuses for not knowing what is happening in LVSWR-land.)

Eric Colvin – Eric again announced the Holiday Party will be held on December 7th from 7-9 at his home at 1304 Colony Pine Street, Las Vegas, NV, 89144. The food will be provided by Soiree's. Remember that his home is in a fancy shmancy gated community so be prepared to provide the secret codes and to answer the secret questions in order to be admitted.

Eric failed to announce the winners of the football contest last Sunday. However, the all-knowing Obadiah thinks it was "Aaron Tippetts" and "Minerva Mortel" and also thinks that Minerva Mortel is a made-up name!

ROTARY PINS

Ed Guthrie was wearing no Rotary regalia for which he donated $25 to the cause.

RECOGNITIONS

Bryan Dziedziak was recognized for Dr. Caryl's community participation as a Vice President and board member of the Nevada School of the Arts. Bryan announced that NSA's annual fundraiser is right around the corner...President Ron said he would include a copy of the fundraiser flyer in the newsletter for $50. Bryan had no choice. The flyer is attached somewhere below.

Chris Publow was fined $100 for his recent birthday on 9/3 ($2 per year, right Chris?) and another $50 for missing the Rotary meeting after the recent golf outing at the exclusive Summit Club golf course just south of the Ridges with Jack Woodcock. Chris' absences are usually explained by his "summering" at their palatial mansion in Michigan on the lake. He did say, however, that the snow is flying in Michigan and he is home to stay at least until next spring.

Aric Graham was asked to explain his recent absences. His response was that he and Elfrida were vacationing in Hawaii for the last time as an "unencumbered" couple. As you know, they are anxiously awaiting the birth of their first child (just beginning the third trimester) which, as everyone with kids knows, signals the end of life as you knew it. It isn't a sad ending, rather a happy beginning to a life of diapers, toddlers, teenagers, and endless expenses. (Obadiah's note: I'll bet President Ron will give a huge credit to the first club member that can come up with the current cost of raising a child.) To ease Aric into the expensive part of parenting, President Ron fined him $100 and also wished him a happy birthday (9/25).

Justin Kalb was recognized in absentia for his recent trip to Tennessee for a whiskey event. Hmmm, I'm sure he was there to observe best practices in commercial construction management and to bring back the latest in state of the art building techniques. (Aren't "stills" illegal in the State of Nevada??)

Jim Andres was recognized for his prominent seating at a head table at the recent business excellence awards. Even though Manpower wasn't one of the honorees, they did have prominent seating due to their acknowledged business excellence in the community (actually he said he was a guest of Jeff Grace at NetEffect.) (Hey, President Ron, Paul Gustilo's employer, Southwest Gas, was one of the honorees! I'm sure you just overlooked that, or perhaps are keeping it in reserve for a future date??) When asked by Pres. Ron how "excellent" the fine should be, Jim responded "$25". Ron's reply, "Wrong, $50!"

Jordana Lane was asked about her absence last week and she said that she was home with a sick child. President Ron said that was where she was supposed to be and waived any fine (thus proving that Keith Thomas does not have a corner on successful excuses.)

Keith Thomas, following a lengthy, elaborate, and thoroughly believable oratory about his financial "non-wherewithal", was nonetheless fined $25 (apparently to make up for no fine for Jordana and probably just to prove that his excuses are not always (in fact, never) successful).

Adrienne Cox was fined $39 - $1 for each of her birthday's, and was thereupon serenaded with a somewhat melodic version of "Happy Birthday", further cementing our club's reputation as "non-singers".

Richard Bowler was recognized $100 for not singing louder (after all, he is by far the best singer in the club) and for remembering that today was wedding anniversary. Asked what he bought for Athena, he responded "hey, at least I remembered!")

JOKE OF THE DAY

Tom Martin regaled us with a story of the retirement party of a local priest where the featured speaker, was a politician. The speaker was very late so the priest tried to fill some time by telling the crowd about his very first day and very first confession experience as a new priest. Apparently, the confessor had a long laundry list of various sins and transgressions which made the priest wonder about the wisdom of having moved to that community. About then, the politician entered, apologized for being late, and began his speech by saying that he was happy to be there to honor the priest inasmuch as he had known the priest since the priest's very first day and was honored to have been his very first confessor. Moral – never be late. Ok, Tom told it better.

FULL CALENDAR FROM DACdb FOR 2017-2018 IS ATTACHED.

TODAY’S SPEAKER: Today’s speaker was Dr. Nancy Brune, Ph.D., Executive Director of the “Guinn Center”. (Just reading her bio is exhausting and way intimidating...we really have some talented people here in Las Vegas). And guess who she was sitting by at the head table? Yup, Bryan Dziadziek! Here is a synopsis of her presentation which can be found on the web here.

VISION

The Kenny Guinn Center for Policy Priorities seeks to identify and inform sound policies that support a thriving and prosperous 21st century Nevada.

MISSION

The Guinn Center is a nonprofit, bipartisan, think-do tank focused on delivering independent, fact based, and well-reasoned analysis of critical policy issues that advance solutions toward a vibrant Nevada.

OUR OBJECTIVES

Our ability to make sound budget and policy decisions determine our ability to educate our children, enjoy good health, protect the most vulnerable, and invest in other building blocks of a successful society. New policy choices based on sound research, clear thinking, and bold ideas can pave the way forward to a brighter future.

Objective 1: Provide Independent and Reliable Policy Analysis that Builds Public Trust

The Guinn Center represents the voice of the moderate middle that will move beyond the ‘either/or’ political rhetoric of our time. The facts will tell the story and lead the way to new ideas. This fact- based approach drives thoughtful and practical policy ideas that the Guinn Center and other decision-makers can promote. We will adhere to established research and analytical quality standards and serve as an honest broker of information.

Objective 2: Inform Public Debate, Expand Public Engagement, and Promote Connectivity

The Guinn Center will be a major source of reliable information for decision-makers and opinion leaders, and help shape coverage of key budget and policy issues. Ultimately we will help the public and decision-makers understand policy options and state budgets and the tradeoffs involved in these policy choices. The Guinn Center will expand state budget and policy debates by helping a diverse range of constituencies and the general public to participate in the policy process and pursue solutions by reaching out to networks across the state, raising awareness of specific issues, formulating policy solutions, and working with networks to understand common ground, develop effective messages, and refine legislative strategies to achieve policy impact

WHAT WE DO

We pursue our mission by

Providing data-driven research

Offering independent policy analysis

Developing strategies and programs to realize a 21st Century Nevada that benefits all Nevadans

Educating, training, and providing technical assistance to all stakeholders in Nevada's policy realm

Facilitating statewide collaboration, and

Building collaborative partnerships to advance informed policy solutions for Nevada

How we do it

Policy briefs

Research reports

Budget and policy primers

Release of an annual "State of Nevada" report

Trainings for all stakeholders and decision makers in Nevada's policy realm

Facilitated statewide working groups

Hosted workshops, round tables, and conferences
