VETERANS RECOGNITION

Pres. Joe began the meeting by recognizing the military veterans in the room today. Those present today included Angela Baker, Greg Mottau, and Chris Publow. Thanks so much to Angela, Greg, Chris, and all the other Southwest Rotarian veterans not able to attend today for your service to our country!

GOLD RAFFLE ANNOUNCEMENT

Pres. Joe invited Bruce MacKenzie and Greg Mottau to make a presentation about the next Gold Raffle to be held on March 28, 2024. Bruce said that the theme will be Hawaiian and it will be held at the "Distill" venue at 6945 S. Rainbow Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89118. Bruce asked for suggestions for a "name" and Pres. Joe suggested that each table come up with a suggestion during lunch. The suggestions presented came down to a vote between "Golden Luau" and "Kula Hula" ("Kula" means gold in the Hawaiian language.) The winner, "Kula Hula", was suggested by Francesca (for which she was granted one Lawry's gift card).

Bruce said there will be hula dancers welcoming the guests with lei's and later on with a hula dance presentation. He also promised a special dance by Pres. Joe.

Greg Mottau said that they would like to sign up some sponsors to help in the fundraising so if you would spread the word, that would be great. He also said that it is never too late to start tracking down items for the silent auction. Contact him for details.

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say, or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

The following code of conduct has been adopted for the use of Rotarians:

As a Rotarian, I will

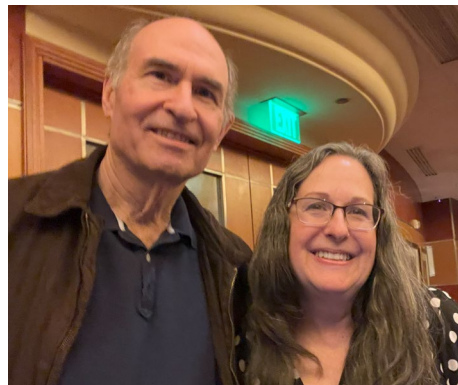

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to: mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities, report any suspected harassment, and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

VISITING ROTARIANS

None

GUESTS

Jim Oswald joined us as a guest of his sister Lori Clarke. Jim is, of course, the scion of our esteemed Past President Gib Oswald (1975-1976). Raised on the west side of Vegas, he now lives in Henderson. He says he remembers when Rainbow Ave. and Jones Ave. were both dirt roads and that Sahara Ave. was originally named "San Francisco Ave." Great to have the chance to meet you, Jim, and hope to see you again soon! (Also, happy birthday to Gibby who is celebrating his 88th birthday later this week on his palatial ranch in Wyoming.)

Rodney Hammond joined us as a guest of Jordana Lane. He was a client of hers in 2011 when he bought his home and she recently helped him buy another property. He is also a fellow runner. He has lived in Las Vegas for 27 years and is the president of a company called JSC Technologies on Sandhill Rd. They specialize in the design and production of wire harnesses and assemblies for gaming and entertainment companies, medical equipment, lighting fixtures, appliances, transportation, vending and many other products. He has two children and in 19 days, they are headed to Disneyland. Welcome, Rodney, hope to see you again soon!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Pres. Joe advised the club that PDG Tom Novotny's brother had recently passed away. Keith Thomas said that he sent a message to PDG Tom on behalf of the club.

Eric Colvin announced the Week 10 results of the Sunday and Monday night football pool (MNF added post meeting since your editor never finishes the newsletter before the MNF):

Giants-Raiders – SNF - Week 10

1 st quarter	Les Kaneta
2 nd quarter	Les Kaneta
3 rd quarter	Timmy Dong
4 th Quarter	Yvonne Hall

Broncos-Buffalos – MNF - Week 10

1 st quarter	Troy Lochhead
2 nd quarter	Joe Wittenwiler
3 rd quarter	Don Ellis
4 th Quarter	Bruce MacKenzie

This year, we expect to raise about $10,000 from the pool for our youth programs!! Great job, Eric!

Eric also announced that the club's annual Holiday Party will be held at his residence on December 9th, a Saturday, at 6:00 p.m. In preparation, he said he went to Ely over the weekend to pick up the holiday decorations which are apparently too voluminous to store at his residence in Vegas so he keeps them at his bungalow in Ely (or maybe he said that he kept them at a storage facility there because it was much cheaper than here in Las Vegas.)

Pres. Joe announced that Gregg Townsend from the Summerlin Club is looking for Salvation Army bellringers at the Downtown Summerlin location. If you are interested, please contact Gregg at 702-250-2527 or threeg69@gmail.com.

Jordana Lane announced that on Saturday, November 18th, at 10:00 a.m. the Red Rock Club is again sponsoring the meal kit assembly project to benefit the Nevada Partnership of Homeless Youth. Our club has provided financial and volunteer assistance in the past. Pres. Joe called for a vote by the board members present to approve financial assistance of $1,000. The vote was unanimous and will be ratified at the next board meeting on the 27th. For those interested in volunteering, the event begins at 10:00 a.m. and is located at Roseman University, One Breakthrough Way, Las Vegas, NV 89147. See the attached flyer. Click here to see all the pictures from last year. Here are a couple of pictures from last year:

Bruce MacKenzie said that there is a Rotary leadership meeting being held that same day at the same location (Roseman University).

Pres. Joe gave a "...warm heartfelt thank you" to Jordana Lane since she had volunteered to transport a load of Interact Kids to a cleanup project. The project was cancelled but Jordana's willingness to help out earned her two Lawry's gift cards.

Pres. Joe also said that he would be sending out an order form for new Rotary shirts. Each club member will get one shirt free.

Pres. Joe said that the new Southwest Rotary lapel pins have finally arrived and he distributed one to each member present. He thanked Keith Thomas for his efforts in coordinating the project and gave him a $100 credit. Keith was then given a $200 fine because the pins were supposed to be magnetic. Despite Keith's protestations that he is old, feeble and forgetful, and should be forgiven, the fine stuck. Pres. Joe did, however, give him a Lawry's gift card as a consolation prize.

Jeanne Radde announced that on Wednesday, November 29th, will be our next Feed the Homeless and clothing giveaway at Amazing Grace Ministries at Christ Church Episcopal on Maryland Parkway and St. Louis Avenue. Please be there by 4:00 p.m. For the history of our involvement with FTH at AGM at CCE on MP, click here. Jeanne complained that she never gets any gift cards and eventually Pres. Joe took pity on her and gave her two cards and said that she was "...doing a fabulous job!"

Tom Martin let the club know that Fred Fukumoto recently spent some time in Scripps Hospital in San Diego tending to matters of the heart. He said he talked to Fred earlier today and he is in good spirits. Get better soon, Fred, and we will see you soon.

Tom also said that he has scheduled our Rotary golf outing for March 15-16, 2024, in St. George, Utah. Signup sheets are in the book. Right now, he is just looking for interest, not a firm commitment. He says he is getting a good response so far.

Angela Baker said to send her any recommendations that you have for speakers. She said she has the speaking calendar almost all booked up into December.

Public Relations/Newsletter

Keith said the newsletter is posted each week on our website and on our Facebook page (where you can opt to see the whole newsletter or just the pictures.)

GIFTS FOR THE PRESIDENT (Pres. Joe suggests anything “coffee” related)

Melissa Brooks said that they traveled recently to Belize in Central America and she presented Pres. Joe with a mug and some coffee:

Greg Mottau spent some time in Portland and brought back some “Stumptown” coffee:

Keith Thomas said that he volunteers on Wednesday mornings at a food distribution project in Henderson sponsored by the St. Therese HIV Outreach Center. Each day, they provide free food to about 50 cars. Last Wednesday, he was handing out boxes of food, etc., and noticed that there were some five-pound bags of coffee being distributed and figured that Pres. Joe would appreciate one of the bags. So he “appropriated” one of them (see pictures from last Wednesday by clicking here). Turns out it is “Pike’s Place” premium coffee from Starbucks:

JOKE OF THE DAY

Scott Baranoff told about a private detective reporting to his female client. “Yesterday I followed your husband to two bars on Elm Street, three on Maple, and finally to a motel,” he says, “I see,” says the woman. “And do you think that’s enough grounds for divorce?” “I’m not sure,” says the detective, “After all, he was following you at the time.”

Tom Martin...FYI – you pee on a jellyfish sting, not a jelly stain. Again, my apologies to the lady at the Waffle House this morning.

DRAWING

Greg Mottau was the winner today.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

There is a former Southwest Rotarian in the background. Can anyone identify him?

UPCOMING SPEAKERS AND EVENTS

PROGRAM

Today's program was presented by Barbara Tabach, Director of the "Veteran's Voices" project.

Veterans' Voices: We're Listening [VWL] is an oral history collaborative at UNLV in association with the Women's Research Institute of Nevada and the Military and Veteran Services Center.

She founded the project in 2022 to capture the experiences of Southern Nevada Veterans and their families. Veterans' Voices: We're Listening represents all branches and eras of the U.S. military and documents the diversity of Veterans and their experiences, their service, and sacrifices.

The audio-recorded oral histories of Veterans and their families are transcribed and edited. They also scan photographs and other materials that will be included in the final oral history. They then create and publish a book of the transcript and images. The final product will be archived and available to the public and researchers.

Thanks, Barbara, for an excellent presentation! A copy of her presentation is attached

ABOUT US

Until this project, no organized place existed to interview and preserve the experiences of southern Nevada Veterans. When local oral historian Barbara Tabach learned of this, she took it as a challenge and founded Veterans' Voices: We're Listening. For over a decade, Barbara's career as an oral historian flourished at UNLV's Oral History Research Center where she collected over 400 oral histories to preserve Las Vegas history.

In 2022, Barbara forged a collaboration with two successful centers at UNLV: the Women's Research Institute of Nevada and the Military & Veteran Services Center. The Eleanor Kagi Foundation partnered with VVWL and the organized collecting began.

Using her expertise, Barbara brought together a team to establish a collection of interviews and photographs that will be archived for access by researchers.

OUR PROCESS

The honor of listening to our local Veterans is priceless. Our VVWL team produces the oral history at no cost to the Veteran or their family. During a series of oral history interviews, we guide Veterans to recall their life and military experiences. We spend hours audio-recording interviews with each Veteran, learning about their background, their entry into the military, their experiences, and their transition after the military. Each participating Veteran then has an opportunity to review and edit their transcripts. As a bonus, we encourage Veterans to share photos and collateral materials that we scan and include in their archival collection. VVWL then creates a personal book for each narrator.

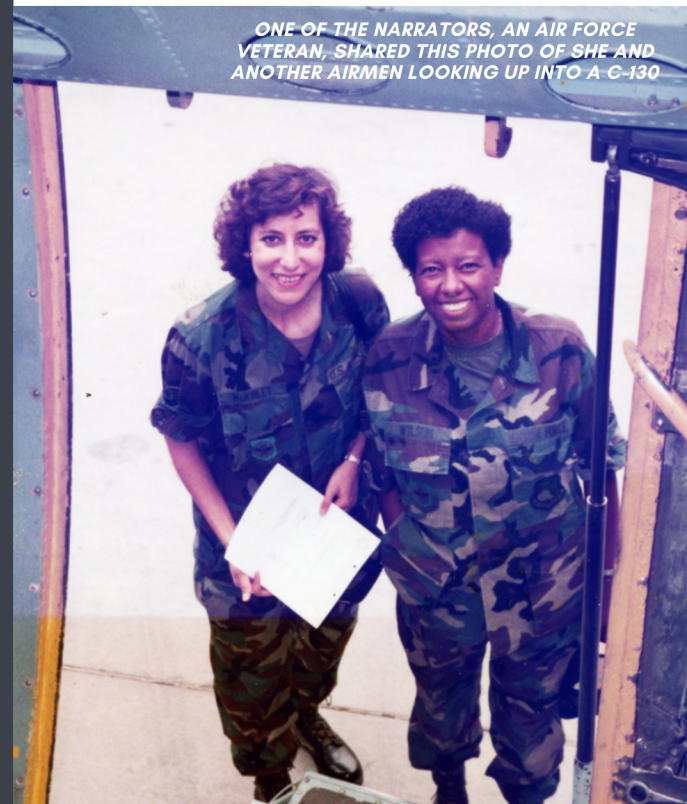

Preserving the stories of southern Nevada Veterans

OUR VETERANS

Southern Nevada has an estimated population of 160, 000 Veterans, from periods as early as WWII through to the Global War on Terror. We interview Veterans of many backgrounds, identities, and experiences – men and women, combat and noncombat, enlisted and officer, draftees, and volunteers – who share how service shaped their lives.

We provide a safe, empathetic space for them to tell their own story and shed light on what it truly means to be a Veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces.

Sponsorship Levels

FY24

Veterans' Voices: We're Listening relies on the support of donors, corporate sponsors, and community partners to sustain our mission to connect people to the culture and history of military Veterans and their stories. This collaborative project is amongst UNLV's Women's Research Institute of Nevada (WRIN) and the Military and Veterans Services Center (MVSC).

Our mission to listen to each Veteran is unwavering.
