VISITING ROTARIANS

GUESTS

Darren Welch joined us today as a guest of Jack Woodcock. He is General Counsel at Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices and is a native Nevadan who left Las Vegas at age 17 vowing to never return. However, after law school and spending a few years in Carson City, he saw the light and Jack convinced him to return to Las Vegas and keep Berkshire Hathaway on the straight and narrow. He has seen the evolution of the market from the days of a contract written on a piece of paper on the hood of a car to today's contract which is 12 pages long with 27 pages of disclosures. Welcome, Darren, good to have you with us today!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Pers. Joe reminded everyone to get their Rotary shirt orders in by as/12/23. Each club member will receive one free shirt.

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say, or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

The following code of conduct has been adopted for the use of Rotarians:

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to: mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities, report any suspected harassment, and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

Bruce MacKenzie said the next Gold Raffle is to be held on March 28, 2024. He said that "Kula Hula" (Kula means gold in Hawaiian) is the theme. It will be held at the "Distill" venue at 6945 S. Rainbow Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89118. Bruce said there will be hula dancers welcoming the guests with lei's and later on will be presenting a hula dance presentation. He also promised a special dance by Pres. Joe. Greg Mottau would like to sign up some sponsors to help in the fundraising so if you would spread the word, that would be great. He also said that it is never too late to start tracking down items for the silent auction. Contact him for details. See the flyer attached.

Paul Gustilo announced that our Feed the Homeless and clothing giveaway went very well and we had plenty of volunteers. Click here for pictures. Bruce MacKenzie coordinated the food and Jeanne Radde coordinated the clothing, including gloves, hats, It was held at Amazing Grace Ministries at Christ Church Episcopal on Maryland Parkway and St. Louis Avenue. For the history of our involvement with FTH at AGM at CCE on MP, click here. Our next FTH is scheduled for next month, January 31, 2024.

Paul also announced that it is time to begin the process of selecting our officers and directors for 2024-2025. If you are interested in serving as a director and would like to have your name placed in nomination to serve a two-year term (we will need to elect two directors to replace directors whose terms are expiring), please contact Paul Gustilo as soon as possible.) Elections are scheduled for next week so let him know as soon as possible. President-Elect Rebecca Collett and Secretary/Treasurer Bruce MacKenzie are "switching positions" and Bruce will be our President next year and Rebecca will remain as President-Elect for another year.

Francesca Gilbert announced that she has already purchased 108 coats from JCPenney for our annual "Santa Coats" project. This year the coats will go to the kids at William Ferron Elementary School. She will be sorting the coats on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. so if you are anywhere in the area of her office at St. Rose Parkway & Seven Hills, come on by and help out.

GIFTS FOR THE PRESIDENT (Pres. Joe suggests anything “coffee” related)

Paul Gustilo said that he just happened to be in Paris last week and was so busy he almost forgot to buy a present. Fortunately, he found something at the airport! And fortunately, TSA let him take it through security...he said they almost took it away.

Greg Mottau saw an interesting package and decided it would be a fitting present for Pres. Joe:

Tom Martin – brought some chocolate covered coffee beans from Costa Rica (no, Tom wasn't in Costa Rica...he just likes the “Pura Vida” coffee.

JOKE OF THE DAY

Tom Martin...There was a person who sent twenty different puns to his friend with the hope that at least ten of the puns would make them laugh. No pun in ten did.

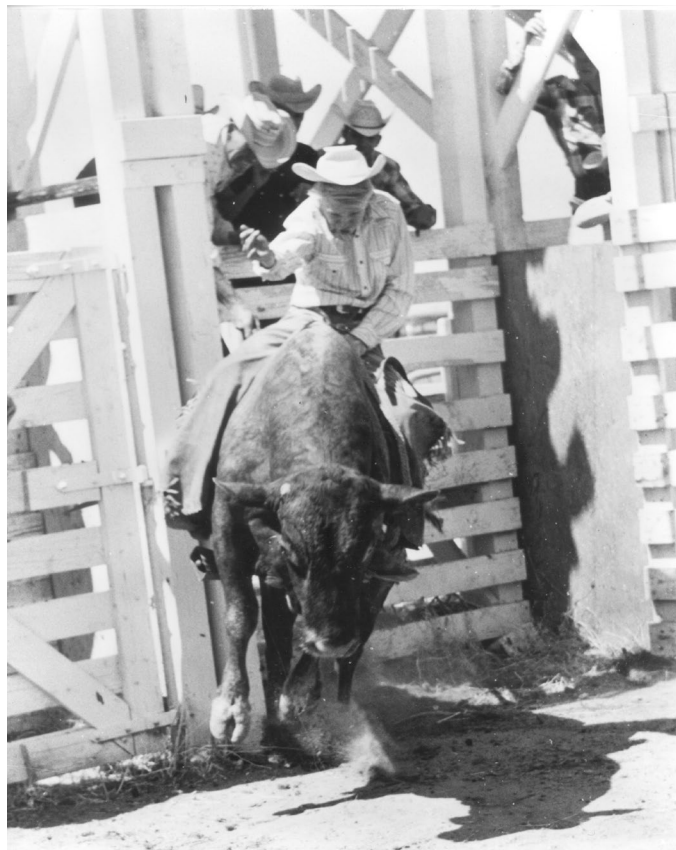

Bruce Pope...A man and woman had been married for more than 60 years. They had shared everything. They had talked about everything. They had kept no secrets from each other except that the little old woman had a shoe box in the top of her closet that she had cautioned her husband never to open or ask her about. For all of these years, he had never thought about the box, but one day the little old woman got very sick and the doctor said she would not recover. In trying to sort out their affairs, the little old man took down the shoe box and took it to his wife's bedside. She agreed that it was time that he should know what was in the box. When he opened it, he found two crocheted dolls and a stack of money totaling $95,000. He asked her about the contents. 'When we were to be married,' she said, ' my grandmother told me the secret of a happy marriage was to never argue. She told me that if I ever got angry with you, I should just keep quiet and crochet a doll.' The little old man was so moved; he had to fight back tears. Only two precious dolls were in the box. She had only been angry with him two times in all those years of living and loving. He almost burst with happiness. 'Honey,' he said, 'that explains the doll, but what about all of this money? Where did it come from?' 'Oh,' she said, 'that's the money I made from selling the dolls.'

DRAWING

Les Kaneta was today's winner.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

One of our former Southwest Rotarians was a real cowboy. Anybody recognize him?

UPCOMING SPEAKERS AND EVENTS

PROGRAM

Today's program was presented by Heather Engle, CEO of the Las Vegas Rescue Mission (as you may or may not know, each of our speakers this year is recognized with a donation made to the LVRM on the speaker's behalf.)

She is a native Nevadan, born in Elko, raised in Carson City, and educated at UNR.

The Mission provides services to all people without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, age, gender, religion or disability.

A copy of her presentation, which focused on their capital campaign, is attached. Also attached are a couple of PDFs with more information about LVRM.
