VISITING ROTARIANS

GUESTS

None today.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tom Martin thanked everyone who came to the Rotary golf outing in Southern Utah at the Sunbrook Golf Course in St. George, Utah, last weekend. Friday evening, we partied at Settler's Point Motel, Saturday morning we golfed (or for one of the golfers, what passed as golf) and Saturday evening we partied some more at SPM. At the Saturday evening session, we found out that the hotel was holding a fundraiser for the Make-A-Wish foundation. They were selling hot dogs and hamburgers so we supplemented our pizza evening with burgers and dogs. Bruce Pope also challenged the golfers (and partners and non-golfers) to come out of pocket to help the hotel's fundraiser and by the end of the evening we had contributed about $500. Bruce also talked about something called the "60-mile rule" (you will have to ask Bruce about the rule inasmuch as your innocent newsletter editor knows nothing of such things.) Our group, however, was so sedate and decorous that any "60-mile rule" would be unnecessary in any event. Pictures from the weekend can be seen by clicking here.

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say, or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

The following code of conduct has been adopted for the use of Rotarians:

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to: mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities, report any suspected harassment, and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

Fred Fukumoto announced that the scholarship committee will be interviewing candidates this week for our 4-year scholarships of $12,000 each. This year we will have two 4-year scholarships available and two 1-year scholarships available.

Paul Gustilo said that on 5/5/26, we will be having our last Happy Feet project of the school year. We will again be at Ferron Elementary School and we will begin setup at 7:30 p.m. and will be "shoeing" the third grade

Pres. Rebecca said that she attended District Conference April 24-26 and that Tom Novotny (who was attending to District duties today in his capacity as District Administrator) would report on the conference next week. Members are also reminded that the 2027 Rotary International Convention has been changed from Dubai to Barcelona. A couple of our members (Keith Thomas and Jeanne Willett) are already planning to attend. Also coming up is the District Training Assembly on 5/23/26 in Apple valley, CA.

UPCOMING SPEAKERS AND EVENTS

JOKE OF THE DAY

Scott Baranoff – A woman goes to the bird store as she wants to buy a bird to surprise her husband. “Good day, Ma’am.” “Good day, I would like to buy a parrot.” “Unfortunately, we only have one parrot left. It used to live in a brother, bit it’s very cute. The woman buys it. At home she covers it up and waits for her beloved husband. The husband arrives home, enters the room, and the wife removes the cloth from the cage. The parrot looks around and says, “Hmmm, new room, new bed, new girl, oh, hello, George.”

Tom Martin - Donald Trump was walking through Manhattan and saw a long queue. Wondering what it was for, he joined it. People would look over their shoulder, see that it was Donald Trump behind them, and leave the queue, so he would proceed closer and closer to the front. As he was getting closer to the head of the queue, he asked one guy, who also looked and was about to walk away, "Wait a second, what is this queue for and why are you now leaving it?" The man said "This is the queue for Canadian Immigration Visas, but if you are getting one, I don't need one now."

DRAWING

PROGRAM

Harry Mong was our speaker today. He was introduced by Paul Gustilo who coincidentally is Harry’s neighbor. He has been in Las Vegas for about 17 years and has three children who Harry later described as Paul and Nancy’s wake up alarm on Saturday mornings.

He is the Vice President of Operations for Special Olympics Nevada, and leads their programs, operations, and partnerships. With over 20 years of non-profit experience, he previously served as Senior Director of Programs. As Vice President of Operations, he oversees key operational functions for the Nevada chapter. He has over two decades of experience in the non-profit sector and holds a Master's degree in Coaching and Athletic Administration. He has been featured in Enterprise Bank & Trust spotlights for his leadership in developing athletic programs and, according to Nevada Business Magazine, in his role, he works directly with athletes on initiatives like the 2026 USA Games. He is part of the leadership team at the reestablished, independent Special Olympics Nevada chapter.

The mission of Special Olympics is to provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities. This gives them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy, and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills, and friendships with their families, other Special Olympics athletes, and the community.

A copy of Harry's presentation is attached to the newsletter.
