VISITING ROTARIANS

Jackie Thornhill, although technically not a visiting Rotarian, joined us again today. She is a former member of the Las Vegas Club where she served as President in 2019-2020 after which she served as an Assistant Governor for 2 years. She is from Mt. Airy, North Carolina where she also was a member of Rotary. She is looking to get back involved in Rotary and is in the process of joining LVSWR. Welcome back, Jackie!

Carl Davis joined us today from the Rotary Club of New Orleans. He is in town to have a little “Vegas” fun and brought along his mother who he said couldn’t be at today’s luncheon because she is out “...spending his inheritance”. Welcome, Carl, we love your sense of humor. Please visit us again.

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say, or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

The following code of conduct has been adopted for the use of Rotarians:

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to: mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities, report any suspected harassment, and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

GUESTS

Monika Bertaki joined us today as a guest of our speaker. She joined the Clark County Department of Aviation in January 2023 as the Chief Aviation Marketing Officer. In her role, she oversees all communication efforts, including branding, media relations, advertising, and social media for Harry Reid International Airport, along with the four general aviation facilities in the Clark County airport system. Additionally, she oversees the airport experience program, which aims to deliver an enriched experience for guests, team members, and the Southern Nevada community. She has more than 10 years of experience cultivating community and corporate partnerships, as well as implementing large campaigns in both the public and private sectors. Prior to joining the Department of Aviation, she held several media, marketing and creative positions at the Regional Transportation Commission of Southern Nevada and Caesars Entertainment. She earned her bachelor's degree in communication studies and master's degree in rhetoric from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV). She has also served as a public speaking instructor at UNLV and is fluent in three languages. Welcome, Monika!

Kaylee Lane joined us today as a guest of her mom, Jordana Lane. She was playing hooky from school today but had a good reason since she was helping mom with the SOAR award ceremony. She is a junior at Coronado High School and is also a standout soccer player. And she is growing up way too fast. Here is a picture from last year (ok, maybe it was more than just last year, but it sure seems like it.)

Brad Stewart joined us as a guest of Keith Thomas. He was in attendance to receive a donation from our club for a special program that he has for special education students at his school. See below for more information.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Announcements carried forward:

1. The next Greenspokes is scheduled for 10/7/26 at DeMarco's Pizza at 9785 W. Charleston Blvd. Las Vegas, NV 89117 (Charleston and Hualapai). It will begin at 6:00 p.m.
2. Greg Mottau has a Rotarian friend in Sedona who has 250,000 Paul Harris Fellow points and the friend is willing to match up to $500 for any member who would like to become a Paul Harris Fellow. Contact Greg for details.
3. Thurman White Elementary School in his Henderson neighborhood has a food pantry that ran out of food over the summer. If you have canned goods or other food items that you would like to donate, please contact Tom Novotny and he will come pick them up.
4. Shaun Ochsner is starting a social media project and is looking for volunteers. Sign-up sheets are in the red book. He will be filming a one-to-two-minute video segment about why you are involved in Rotary and then posting it on our Facebook/Instagram pages. He is also planning to start a YouTube channel.
5. RYLA is coming on December 4-6, 2026, let us know if you have any 10th or 11th graders that would be interested. We have a deadline to submit applications coming up in a couple of weeks. Contact Amber for details about becoming a volunteer.
6. The scholarship application has been revamped and updated and is available on the homepage of our website as well as in the Vocational Service section of the site. Click here to go straight to it.
7. Greg Mottau and Keith Thomas are going to Puerto Vallarta 2/16/27 to 2/26/27 for the International Water Project our club has participated in the past five years. If anyone else is interested, contact Greg or Keith.
8. The next board meeting will be next Monday at 11:00 a.m.
9. Toni Kern supports an organization called "Green our Planet" that will be having a Farmers Market on 10/14 at the Clark County Government Center. Click here for more information. Sign up to help set up from 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm. Signup sheet is in the red book. Also see attached flyer.

Francesca Gilbert announced that our Happy Feet service project at William Feron Elementary School last Wednesday was a great success. We put 75 pairs of shoes on the entire first grade. Thanks so much to the Rotarians, spouses, and volunteers who helped out. Many hands made light work. Click here for pictures.

Jordana Lane announced that the annual "Safety Officer Award Recognition" event this morning at City Hall was another resounding success. 23 different departments were recognized. Jordana and Pres. Jeanne are on the committee along with Tom Novotny, Toni Kern, Lori Clarke and Shaun Ochsner. Jordana is the president of the committee and Pres. Jeanne is vice-president. The event is sponsored by all the Rotary Clubs in the valley. The event began at 8:30 a.m. with coffee and snacks with the presentation from 9:00 to 10:30. Click here for pictures and click here to see the program. Great job, Jordana and Jeanne! Shaun was the official photographer. Click here for his pictures.

RECOGNITIONS

Scott Baranoff was welcomed back from his most recent three-month sojourn in the Philippines. He said he brought gifts (see below).

JOKES

Scott Baranoff – Uh, since it was a bit ribald, here is a “synopsis”. You will have to “Google” it for full details. The short version...” a young man, his girlfriend, his new sports car, a request fulfilled, consequences of said request, and a subsequent misunderstanding about the depth of the problem.”

Tom Martin – Uh, another “synopsis”. Again, use “Google” for full details. The short version...” Frank, Fiona, a van, a request fulfilled, consequences of said request, and a doctor’s diagnosis (van aerial disease).”

Bruce MacKenzie was today’s winner.

GIFTS FOR THE PRESIDENT (Pres. Jeanne’s recommended gift is coffee mugs.)

Shaun Ochsner said that he just returned from Washington, D.C. where he was filming action scenes for a TV show. He found an appropriate coffee mug to bring back.

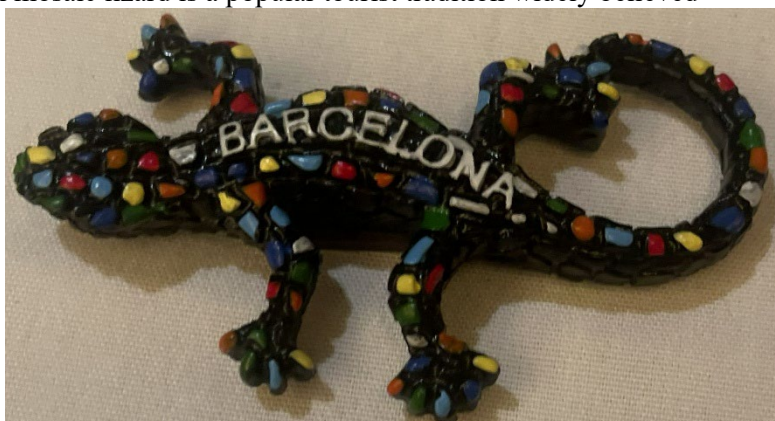

Scott Baranoff brought back two very cool coffee mugs from the Philippines and a beautiful scarf sent by the past-president of the club he attends while he is there.

Fred Fukumoto recently returned from abroad where he visited Barcelona. Instead of bringing back a coffee mug he brought a lizard. He said that the significance of the lizard in Barcelona is rooted in El Drac (The Dragon), a famous colorful mosaic sculpture created by the modernist architect Antoni Gaudí. The Iconic Mosaic Lizard (El Drac) sits on the grand stairway at the main entrance of Park Güell in Barcelona. It was designed by Antoni Gaudí in the early 1900s and built in collaboration with Josep Maria Jujol and is decorated using trencadís—a signature Catalan style made from asymmetric, broken ceramic, marble, and glass mosaic shards. Beyond its artistic value, the sculpture cleverly functions as an overflow drain for the park's underground cistern. While the sculpture is locally called El Drac (Catalan for "the dragon") and links broadly to Catalan dragon myths and Saint George (Sant Jordi, the patron saint of Catalonia), Gaudí originally intended it to represent a natural Mediterranean lizard or salamander symbolizing fire and water resistance. Over the decades, the mosaic lizard has transcended Park Güell to become a defining visual mascot for the entire city of Barcelona, widely featured on souvenirs, keychains, and postcards. Touching the colorful mosaic lizard is a popular tourist tradition widely believed to bring good luck.

So, Fred, did you touch the lizard?

Keith Thomas said that when they were in Idaho a couple of weeks ago, Sherrie found out he had bought a mug in a second-hand store (which he brought last week) and told him he had better get something better, so he searched all over and found a very expensive “Idaho” mug to bring back (along with the obligatory hotel coffee cups) and an “Idaho Spud” candy bar that he picked up on his travels in Idaho.

Ron Reynolds said that he was recently in McClean, VA and while passing through Dulles Airport found an appropriate coffee cup to bring back:

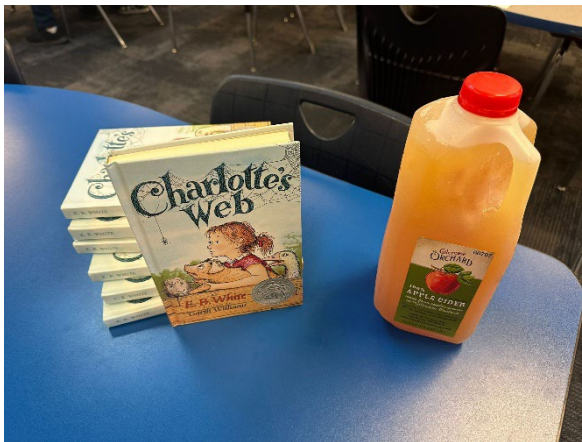

BLAST FROM THE PAST

Fred Fukumoto alerted the club to a newspaper article about Patsy Darnell/Darnell Elementary School that appeared in the Review Journal last week. The school was named after former Southwest Rotarian Marshall Darnell (RIP). Click here to see pictures from the dedication of Marshall Darnell Elementary School on 4/16/02. A copy of the article is attached to the newsletter.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION

Keith Thomas introduced Brad Stewart who was in attendance to receive a donation for a special book program he has developed for 1st and 6th grade special education students at the school where he teaches.

Brad then provided some comments about his program..." This past year, we read Charlotte's Web, and I used the themes from the books purchased with last year's Southwest Rotary donation to create several hands-on learning experiences throughout the year. One day, a student mentioned that she had visited a farm, and I realized that every other student in the class had never been to one! So, I brought in samples of hay, straw, wood chips, and even dry manure for the students to see, touch, and smell. We also sampled fresh apple cider from Gilcrease Orchard while learning about farm life.

The highlight of the year, though, was when a local pig farm visited our school! They brought several pigs for the students to pet, and the farmers spent time answering the students' questions. It was an incredible experience for our elementary Special Education students, many of whom had never had an opportunity like that before. We also tied the experience directly into our writing instruction by having the students write about their visit afterward.

One of the books I'd like my students to read this year is Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. As I started thinking about ways to make the story come alive for them, I contacted Ethel M Chocolates here in Henderson about the possibility of bringing my students to tour their chocolate factory. I've confirmed with Ethel M that they can accommodate our group, and the factory is only about 15 minutes from our school!

I also spoke with our 5th-grade general education teachers, who were very enthusiastic about the idea. We believe we could schedule the trip during our intervention/enrichment time so that it could become part of our Special Education instruction without students missing their core classroom instruction.

Rather than simply reading about Willy Wonka's chocolate factory, our students could actually visit a chocolate factory! We could prepare for the experience through reading and classroom activities, observe the chocolate-making process firsthand, ask questions during the visit, and then bring the experience back into the classroom through writing and other activities connected to the book.

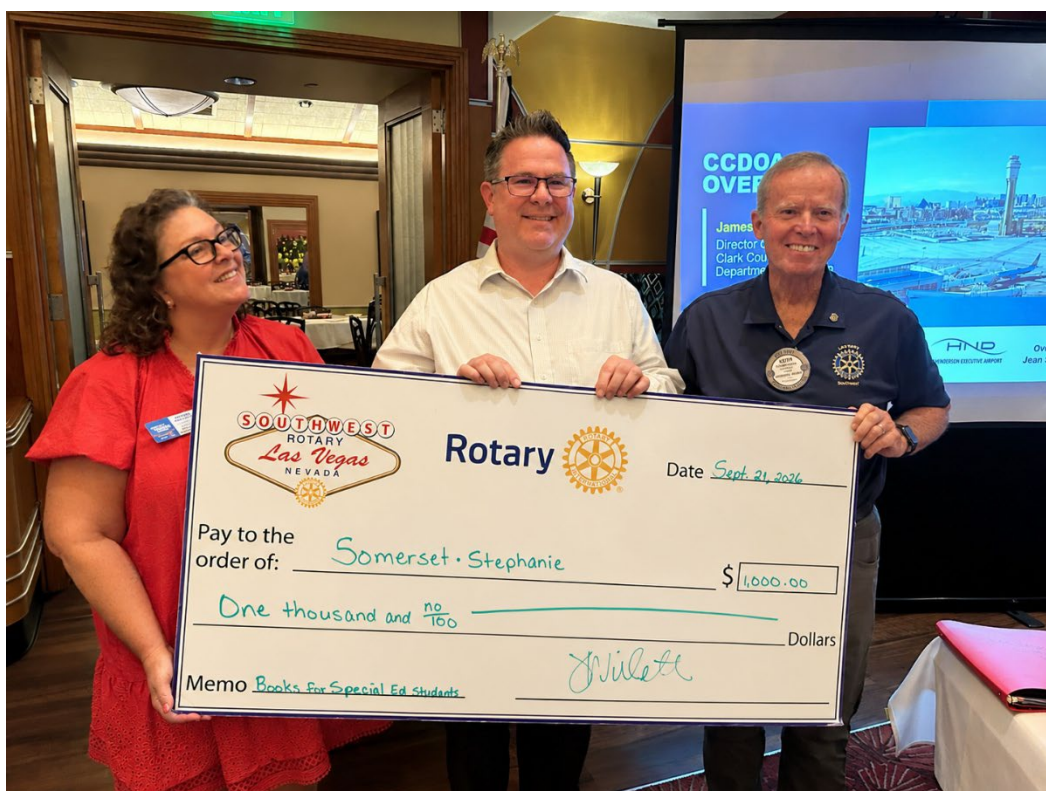

The Southwest Rotary Club's donation for this year's classroom book project will support the books and experiential learning activities connected to our reading instruction, including transportation and any related expenses for the Ethel M Chocolate Factory field trip!

The students genuinely look forward to receiving their own books, and I've heard from several families how much they appreciate the opportunity to build a small library at home. Combining those books with experiences like this gives my students an opportunity not only to read about something, but to experience it, talk about it, and write about it."

Pres. Jeanne then presented him with a check on behalf of our club.

Good job, Brad, and we look forward to reports about how it goes.

PROGRAM

Our speaker today was James C. Chrisley. He was appointed Director of Aviation for Clark County, Nevada, in 2025, bringing more than three decades of leadership experience across commercial, general aviation, and military airport operations both nationally and internationally.

In his current role, he oversees one of the most dynamic aviation systems in the United States, managing five airports: Harry Reid International Airport (LAS), Henderson Executive Airport (HND), North Las Vegas Airport (VGT), Jean Sport Aviation Center and Overton-Perkins Field. Under his leadership, LAS continues to rank among the top 10 busiest airports in North America.

Prior to joining the CCDOA, he served more than 21 years in the U.S. Air Force as a Civil Engineering and Mission Support Officer supporting military operations worldwide. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from the U.S. Air Force Academy, and a Master of Science in Civil Engineering from the University of Texas at Austin. In addition, he is a Certified Member (CM) of the American Association of Airport Executives and serves as an Associate Director on the Nevada Aviation Association (NvAA) board, supporting statewide aviation initiatives.

He has been married to his wife Sunny for more than 27 years, raised three children and is the proud grandfather of two. In his spare time, he enjoys golfing, camping, playing racquetball and cheering on his favorite sports teams – the Raiders and Vegas Golden Knights.

Thank you so much, James, for a very informative discussion.

Making the grade

Darnell Elementary School advances from 1 to 5 stars in two years

Chase Stevens Las Vegas Review-Journal First grade teacher Christine O'Neal, right, hugs Patsy Darnell on Thursday after being presented with a $1,000 check to put toward school supplies at Darnell Elementary School. Darnell is the widow of the school's namesake, Marshall Darnell.

By Spencer Levering Las Vegas Review-Journal

Improving a school's rating from one to five stars is a challenging feat. But one Las Vegas school did just that in only two years.

Darnell Elementary School in the northwest valley skyrocketed to a five-star rating last school year, up from the one-star status they earned in the 2023-24 school year. Star ratings are calculated by the Nevada Department of Education based on factors such as assessment results, chronic absenteeism and graduation rates.

Darnell Principal Kim Gray said she arrived at the school just three years ago with two questions: "What do our kids need?" and "What do our teachers need?"

Gray said she found that, for students to thrive, her teachers needed to become more familiar with the high-quality instructional materials they had been provided. By developing her staff's teaching skills, Gray said her students started seeing results.

"Teaching is an art, and anyone can deliver a curriculum, but these teachers who come to us as professionals have the ability to make sure that they're implementing strategies, supports and scaffolds for kids that are effective," Gray said. "Our growth in our proficiency are definitely outcomes of that purposeful work."

Third-, fourth- and fifth-grade students at Darnell Elementary raised their math proficiency rate to 61.1 percent last year, up nearly 22 percentage points from just two years ago. Their English Language Arts proficiency rate made a 21-percentage-point jump to 64.7 percent proficiency in the same timespan.

"From my first day on this campus, I knew this was not a one-star school," Gray said. "We have the same educators. We are in the same community. Nothing really has changed other than providing everyone what they needed."

She added: "These teachers have always built incredible relationships with our community, our kids and our parents."

The academic improvements were a delight to Patsy Darnell, the widow of the elementary school's namesake, Marshall Darnell, who spent about 30 years as a Clark County School District educator and administrator. A former high school employee in Las Vegas, Patsy Darnell said she has seen how important a child's elementary school years are.

"The first few years is a foundation that means everything to the student for the rest of their life," she said. "I'm just so proud of them."

To celebrate the academic improvements, the College Football Playoff Foundation provided lunch to the school's staff and awarded first grade teacher Christine O'Neal with $1,000 to buy classroom materials. Gray called O'Neal "one of the heartbeats of the school."

O'Neal, a Clark County School District employee for 31 years, said her math instruction in recent years has focused on getting kids to be confident in knowing their numbers, while her English instruction centers on phonics. She said she plans on using the award money to purchase prizes for her students to earn.

"I think the success here is because the teachers really all are working together, and we have a very supportive administration. If we didn't have that, I don't think we could be as successful," said O'Neal, who has worked at Darnell Elementary for 12 years.

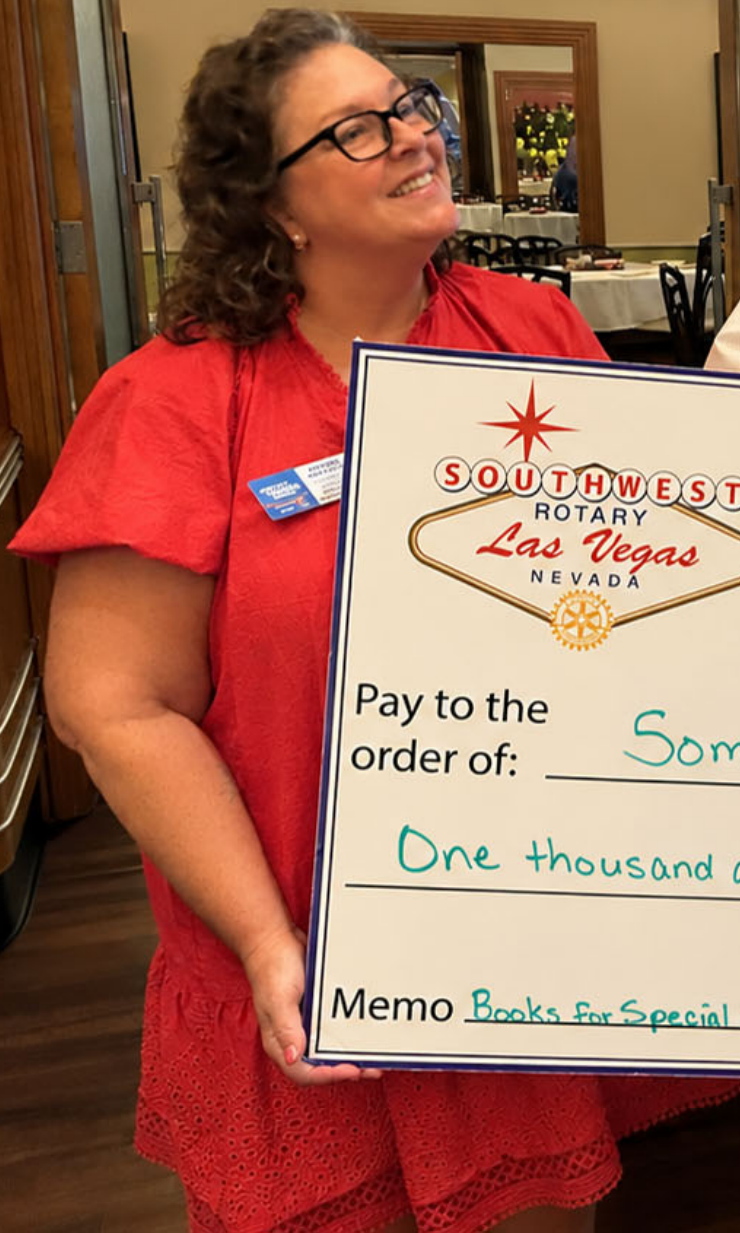

Gray praised the efforts of Darnell's teachers and staff over the last two years.

"They're incredible," Gray said of her school's staff. "The work that they put into this is outstanding. I'm incredibly proud of them."
