DON'T FORGET WE ARE DARK NEXT WEEK FOR COLUMBUS DAY.

VISITING ROTARIANS

None today.

GUESTS

Silvia Avanzini joined us as a guest of today's speaker, Kevin James Parks. She is the Head of Communications at Vay and is truly a "multi-national". She received her Bachelor's Degree at Istituto Universitario (Italy) and her Master's Degree at University of Greenwich in London. Welcome, Silvia!

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say, or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

The following code of conduct has been adopted for the use of Rotarians:

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to: mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities, report any suspected harassment, and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

Victoria Moran joined us as a guest today. She is the recently installed Executive Director of the Children's Foundation of Las Vegas (formerly CASA). She recently moved to Las Vegas from Florida where she was a member of the Rotary Club of Winter Haven and where she was a Senior District Executive for Scouting America. She is looking to get back involved with Rotary. Welcome, Victoria.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Announcements carried forward:

1. The next Greenspokes is scheduled for 10/7/26 at DeMarco's Pizza at 9785 W. Charleston Blvd. Las Vegas, NV 89117 (Charleston and Hualapai). It will begin at 6:00 p.m.
2. Greg Mottau has a Rotarian friend in Sedona who has 250,000 Paul Harris Fellow points and the friend is willing to match up to $500 for any member who would like to become a Paul Harris Fellow. Contact Greg for details.
3. Shaun Ochsner is starting a social media project and is looking for volunteers. Sign-up sheets are in the red book. He will be filming a one-to-two-minute video segment about why you are involved in Rotary and then posting it on our Facebook/Instagram pages. He is also planning to start a YouTube channel.
4. RYLA is coming on December 4-6, 2026, let us know if you have any 10th or 11th graders that would be interested. We have a deadline to submit applications coming up in a couple of weeks. Contact Amber for details about becoming a volunteer.
5. The scholarship application has been revamped and updated and is available on the homepage of our website as well as in the Vocational Service section of the site. Click here to go straight to it.
6. Greg Mottau and Keith Thomas are going to Puerto Vallarta 2/16/27 to 2/26/27 for the International Water Project our club has participated in the past five years. If anyone else is interested, contact Greg or Keith.

Keith Thomas announced the winners of the Sunday football pool (your newsletter editor added the Monday Night results since he didn't get the newsletter out until after the game.)

Pres. Jeanne announced that the board of directors has approved Jackie Thornhill to be a member of the club. She is a former member of the Las Vegas Club where she served as President in 2019-2020 after which she served as an Assistant Governor for 2 years. She is from Mt. Airy, North Carolina where she also was a member of Rotary. She is looking to get back involved in Rotary. Welcome, Jackie!

Pres. Jeanne also announced that she received an email from Dr. Jim Justus Nyamu, last week's visitor from Kenya with information about Fair Trade Safaris, an Africa-focused travel company committed to responsible tourism and creating meaningful travel experiences that connect travelers with Africa's wildlife, conservation initiatives, and local communities. A copy is attached to the newsletter.

Tom Martin announced that Elliot Cohen passed away on September 30th. He is the spouse of long-time former Southwest Rotarian and past-President Adrienne Cox. Adrienne will be holding a private family celebration of life at a later date. Elliot was a regular attendee at our social functions and a great supporter of Adrienne's Rotary activities. On behalf of all of us at Southwest Rotary, please accept our condolences on your loss.

RECOGNITIONS

Duncan Lee was welcomed back in town. He said he was celebrating his 65th birthday in New York at Rutgers University. He said that last weekend he attended three football games: the first at Meadows HS (his son's alma mater) in LV, and the next day in LA for USC (his alma mater) v. Washington, and then back to LV for the Raiders game. Now, there is a football fan. No fine, Pres. Jeanne?

Sean Tanko was welcomed back to town whereupon he said he hadn't been anywhere and in fact had been in attendance last week. Pres. Jeanne simply ignored his protestations and asked what he and his family had been up to. He said they are staying busy; his son is in chiropractic college in Overland Park, KS and his daughter is working in his office. They do have a few trips planned including a wine country trip to Healdsburg, CA to celebrate their 26th wedding anniversary. Pres. Jeanne assessed a $2 fine.

Lori Clarke volunteered that she would be attending a Steelers football game and to look for her in the crowd. She may have said something about wearing special headgear but my notes are fuzzy (much like the headgear she will be wearing???) Again, Pres. Jeanne, no fine?

Keith Thomas volunteered to take a fine in return for making an announcement. He invited everyone to watch NBC tonight at 10:00 p.m. for the next installment of "Line of Fire", a new television series about a family of law enforcement agents that bridge differences and cross boundaries as they take cases for the FBI, U.S. Marshals, Secret Service, and Department of Justice. Keith's daughter Rebecca directed the pilot episode and the first episode and is currently in New York directing the 8th episode. She is also one of the executive producers of the series. Keith's fine??? $1,000,000!!!

Cynthia Hamada was asked about her whereabouts and she said that she has been enmeshed in home repairs, inept repairmen, and all that home improvement entails. In other words, crazy busy! Pres. Jeanne must have been feeling compassionate because no fine was assessed!

JOKES

Scott Baranoff told a story of a clothing mishap, a military analogy to correct the mishap, and the subsequent clarification of any visible elements of said clothing mishap. (You'll just have to google it, I guess.)

Tom Martin – I was in my garden when I got the news that my father had fallen from a 20 foot ladder and was in the hospital. I rushed to the hospital expecting that my father had some major fractures, but he was alright except for some minor cuts. When I told him it was a miracle, he disagreed and told me, "Son, I had just fallen from the first step of the ladder."

DRAWING

Cynthia Hamada was today's winner (her first win ever, she said!)

GIFTS FOR THE PRESIDENT (Pres. Jeanne's recommended gift is coffee mugs.)

Keith Thomas said that they spent the weekend in Toquerville and while there, Sherrie spotted a cute Halloween-themed mug and told Keith to buy it to try and make up for some of those motel cups he has been bringing lately. For his efforts, Pres. Jeanne said she would cut his previous $1mm fine by half. (Wait, doesn't that still leave...?)

Rebecca Collett gifted Pres. Jeanne with a very cool paddle ball setup. What many of you might not know is that Pres. Jeanne was a tennis player in college.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

Here is a picture that surfaced during last week’s board meeting. A huge prize awaited anyone who could identify at least six of the people in the picture. Here are the ids except for two (I suppose a huge prize awaits anyone who can id the missing two):

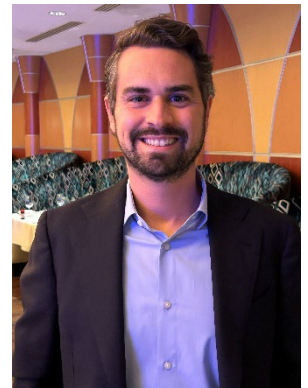

Left to right in back row – Joanne Blystone, Shari Farkas, Andy Katz, ???, Willie Robinson

PROGRAM

Our speaker today was presented by Kevin James Parks, who is the Director of Expansion for Vay Auto.

Vay is a Berlin-founded mobility technology company developing a different path toward driverless transportation: instead of waiting for fully autonomous vehicles, Vay uses remote driving to operate vehicles without a safety driver inside. Its consumer service is currently live in Las Vegas, where customers can request an electric rental car through the Vay app, have it remotely delivered, drive it themselves, and then either park it or have a Remote Driver take it away. Vay says the approach is intended to provide the convenience of personal-car ownership without the cost and hassle of owning a vehicle, while also creating a foundation for increasingly autonomous mobility.

Kevin is focused on helping Vay grow its footprint and integrate its service into local transportation ecosystems, particularly in Las Vegas and elsewhere in the U.S. Their headquarters is located in the old City Hall/ Zappos Campus office.

He is also a multi-national being from Quebec and studying at universities in Quebec and Germany.

Welcome to Las Vegas, Kevin, and thanks for a very interesting presentation. As evidenced by the plethora of questions, his presentation was a thought provoking and fascinating look at the future of transportation in Las Vegas and elsewhere. Thanks, again!!

CONCLUSION

We concluded with the 4-Way Test led by Pres. Jeanne.

Subject: INTRODUCTION TO FAIR TRADE SAFARIS

To: Jeanne Willett <jeanneradde@gmail.com>, <devon@fairtradesafaris.com>

Rotary Club of Las Vegas Southwest

Good afternoon, President Jeanne, fellow Rotarians, and guests.

First, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Rotary Club of Las Vegas Southwest for the warm reception and for giving me the opportunity to speak with my fellow Rotarians during my Walking for Giants – Ivory Belongs to Elephants journey across the United States.

It is always encouraging to meet Rotarians who share a commitment to service, partnership, community development, and creating a positive impact in the world.

Introducing Fair Trade Safaris

I would also like to introduce Fair Trade Safaris, an Africa-focused travel company committed to responsible tourism and creating meaningful travel experiences that connect travellers with Africa's wildlife, conservation initiatives, and local communities.

Fair Trade Safaris recognizes that tourism can play an important role beyond simply providing travel experiences. When approached responsibly, tourism can help create opportunities for local communities, support conservation initiatives, and encourage travellers to understand and appreciate Africa's natural heritage.

Their approach aligns closely with the message I am carrying across the United States through my Ivory Belongs to Elephants campaign.

Connecting Tourism with Conservation

Ivory belongs to elephants.

For many years, I have walked to raise awareness about elephants, wildlife conservation, habitat protection, human-wildlife coexistence, and the importance of supporting communities living alongside wildlife.

Conservation cannot succeed through wildlife protection alone. Communities are an important part of the conservation equation. Responsible tourism can provide opportunities for communities while encouraging the protection of wildlife and natural ecosystems.

This is why I believe organizations involved in responsible tourism have an important role to play in Africa's conservation future.

Supporting Walking for Giants

Through its support of my journey across the United States, Fair Trade Safaris is helping amplify the conservation message of the Ivory Belongs to Elephants campaign.

As I walk from Oakland, California, to New York, I am engaging communities, schools, universities, Rotary clubs, conservation organizations, local leaders, the African diaspora, and members of the public along the way.

The journey is about much more than walking thousands of miles.

It is about creating conversations.

It is about building partnerships.

It is about connecting people with Africa.

And it is about reminding people that protecting elephants and other wildlife requires all of us to play a role.

A Recommendation to Fellow Rotarians

I would therefore like to recommend Fair Trade Safaris to my fellow Rotarians and encourage you to consider them for your future engagements involving:

- Responsible tourism
- African safari experiences
- Wildlife and conservation
- Community-based tourism
- Sustainable travel
- Educational and conservation-focused travel
- Partnerships connecting tourism with community impact in Africa

For those of you who are interested in travelling to Africa, experiencing its wildlife and landscapes, and at the same time learning more about conservation and local communities, Fair Trade Safaris is an organization I encourage you to connect with.

There you go, Devon and fellow Rotarians—please consider connecting with Fair Trade Safaris and exploring opportunities for future engagement and partnership.

Rotary and Africa

As Rotarians, we understand the power of partnerships.

A connection between Rotary, responsible tourism, conservation organizations, and communities in Africa can create opportunities for meaningful service and long-term impact.

My own Rotary journey has shown me how relationships built through service can cross borders and bring people together around common goals.

I hope that today's introduction can help create another bridge between the United States and Africa.

Walking for Giants

Since beginning my walks for elephants, I have travelled thousands of kilometres across different parts of the world to raise awareness for elephant conservation.

Today, my journey continues across the United States.

Every mile is an opportunity to tell the story of Africa's elephants.

Every conversation is an opportunity to create awareness.

Every partnership is an opportunity to strengthen conservation.

And every person who joins the journey becomes part of a much bigger movement.

Ivory Belongs to Elephants.

Walking for Giants.

Connecting People, Conservation and Communities.

Once again, I sincerely thank the Rotary Club of Las Vegas Southwest for the warm reception, friendship, fellowship, and opportunity to speak with you.

I am grateful to Devon and the entire Rotary family for taking the time to listen, engage, and support this journey.

May our connections today lead to meaningful partnerships tomorrow.

Rtn. Dr. Jim Justus Nyamu
